Additional information about can be found on our website. If you have further questions on how Hill Country Vin de Vie can be a great fit for your company, or to make a reservation, we encourage you to reach out via phone, text or email.

Each departure is custom planned around your preferences! We are happy to work with you to ensure that you get everything you want from your tour. We can make time for talks from management or team leaders, additional team building activities, recognition of exemplary staff members or time to announce awards and achievement of target goals. We are exceedingly flexible and will work to promote your vision for your ideal team excursion.

Though we visit locations where wine is tasted and consumed, we are not a party bus and do not promote an environment of unbridled consumption. Our focus is on education and experience, not intoxication. Our tours are a great way to help your team relax and let loose, without the danger of incidences relating to overindulging!
